INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME

INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME

The internship programme was held from 1st to 13th December 2014. Through this programme the future teachers got a real hands on experience as they had to conduct classes in various schools. The four schools where internship programmes were conducted were:

- Cygnet Public School
- Kanya Prashala
- Limra High School
- St. Theresa High School

These schools provided a wonderful platform for the would be teachers to understand all the aspects involved in teaching learning process. One could experience all the phases of teaching cycle right from lesson planning to evaluation.

The expert in anything was once a beginner.

During your internship, you're bound to experience some highs and lows. There will be times when you question everything you've learned so far and then there will be times when you feel on top of the world.

LIBRARY ACTIVITY

Students collected articles on Politics, Sports, Science, and education. The purpose of this activity was to make students aware of latest news in various fields.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

Christmas is the spirit of giving without a thought of getting. It is forgetting self and finding time for others.

Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ and this was celebrated with great enthusiasm by the students. Various events were conducted which included message on Christmas, carol singing, games for teachers and students, videos shown etc. Christmas is for sharing and so gifts were also distributed by Santa Clause .
